

MEET to MARRYtm
Be the ONE to Find the ONE

Marriage Vision Summary

Now that you've created your fully developed Marriage Vision and you're ready to be an Empowered Dater, it's time to distill it down into its most potent essence. The Marriage Vision Summary Sheet will make it much easier for you to create your new dating profile (which you'll be doing in Module 5). Once you create your Soulmate Invitation profile, you can also share it with friends and family members who you'll enroll through Enrollment Conversations so they can make great match suggestions.

I grew up in . I am years old and
I currently live in I am am not open to relocation.

Places I would consider relocating to include:

My marital status is

I am (use sentence 1 from your New Empowering Statement).

Create a few sentences that bring together your essence and how you express it.

Marriage Vision Summary

Describe the ways of being you value in others and that you would like your spouse to possess

Write a sentence or two describing your most important values that you'll share with your true love.

Use sentence #2 of your New Empowering Statement describing how you want feel in a relationship and brings together your top 5 emotional needs.

Review your Goals worksheet from Finding The One and create a 1-3 sentence overview that conveys the essence of your most important goals in terms of marriage and your life with your future spouse.

Marriage Vision Summary

Share some additional facts about who you are and what you value most.

What inspires you?

What do you want to be remembered for?

What is your greatest accomplishment?

What are you most passionate about?

What do you worry about?

What makes you happy?

What do you want to create with your soulmate?

